

Sebastian Deyle, Here I Am

It is late at night and I'm alone,
I got your picture in my mind.
Oh let me know where we went wrong,
loneliness calls my name, you're gone.

I look up and wonder why,
why we're trying to make believe...
if we had love within our hearts,
no need for words, no need to talk, oh can't you see

Now here I am with all my heart just to say,
we can make it and find our way.
Yes, here I am, within my soul I'm true
and this love that I have is just for you.

I am trying to make things right
and I would even take the blame.
Just follow me, give up the fight,
let's stop to play this game,
so we can make it through the night.

Now here I am with all my heart just to say,
we can make it and find our way.
Yes, here I am, within my soul I'm true
and this love that I have is just for you.

Now here I am with all my heart just to say,
we can make it and find our way.
Yes, here I am, within my soul I'm true
and this love that I have is just for you.

Look into my eyes,
give us one more try
and our love will stay alive.

Now here I am with all my heart just to say,
we can make it and find our way.
Yes, here I am, within my soul I'm true
and this love that I have is just for you.
