

Secret Machines, Nowhere Again

Cellophane flowers never happen for me Sleepin' the day off watching the night fall Covering nowhere
Filling my timeshare
There's a woman in the mirror in a fiery state
As she motions to me to start turning away she's lifting her dress up trying to keep up

Oh you'd be surprised How we race
while our lives
Erased

Another moon on an everyday night thinking the morning looking for all right warming the blood flow with poison I don't know why Maybe the rain stopped following me Dripping the colors running the daylight over the cloudburst hoping it don't burst

Right before my eyes
Erased
Our lives
Erased

We know we're lost we're lost in nowhere now
We know we're lost we're lost in nowhere now
Now We know we're lost in nowhere now

Maybe the rain will start following me with millions of colors reflected in daylight right on the kickdrum turning the sound up oh another alone on an everyday night I think in the morning I think I'll be all right watching the blood flow
No wonder I don't know why There's a woman in the mirror in a fiery state
She motions to me I start pulling away She's lifting her dress up all the way up oh

Don't look surprised
Erased
Our lives
Erased
Our lies
Erased
