

Secrets In Stereo, Again

If I had my way, I had my way
I wouldnt change a thing, wouldnt change a thing
Cause youre my obsession
You keep me in the dark to see your spark
Youre keepin me guessin
Messin with my heart. Got it down to an art
Youre eyes surprise me every time
Youre kiss it twists me, blurring the lines
And its the very first night all over
The very first smile and then
Im falling for you

Again

You wreck my world, you wreck my world
Youre always that girl, always that girl
Who walked in the room and
I couldnt look away. You captivate
So drawn to you, and I still feel that way
Some things never change
Youre eyes surprise me everytime
Youre kiss it twist me, blurring the lines
And its the very first night all over
The very first smile and then
Im falling for you

Again
