

Secrets In Stereo, Step outside

maybe this is just pretend we really havent lost our way baby, my heart is caving in I dont wanna hear the words you say
the air is getting thin
its hard to breathe
I think I need
to step outside
we're both gonna lose
were both gonna win
tonight
cause its time to say goodbye
crazy
how I miss the innocence I didnt know it could hurt this bad wish we had a second chance
but the first chance is all we had
the air is getting thin
its hard to breathe
I think I need
to step outside
we're both gonna lose
were both gonna win
tonight
cause its time to say goodbye Im letting you go
but I dont want to
and wont let it show
how it makes me feel
to say goodbye
goodbye to you
the air is getting thin
its hard to breathe
I think I need
to step outside
were both gonna lose
were both gonna win
tonight
cause its time to say goodbye
its time to say goodbye [I dont know what I should do]
... [I guess Ill have to get over] its time to say goodbye [ I dont know what I should do ]
... [I guess Ill have to get over]
its time to say goodbye [I dont know what I should do ]
... [I guess Ill have to get over]
its time to say goodbye [I dont know what I should do ] I guess we say goodbye
