

See Spot Run, Terrified

Wake up my girl I've got something to say to you
I've been knocked down and I don't know what's left to do
I won't live my life like I've lived my life before
I need to spread my wings before I hit the floor

I'm terrified, I'm terrified

Woke up this morning with my hands across my heart
It's been this way since I decided to we should part
It's not that easy as I thought, to let you know
I never thought that I could ever let you go

Terrified, I'm terrified
I'm terrified, I'm terrified

Wake up my girl I've got something that I must say
Before I shed my skin and throw it all away
I'm looking for tomorrow not for yesterday

I'm terrified, I'm terrified,
I'm terrified, I'm terrified
