

Seems So Bright, Permanent Sides

Permanent sides
the perfect space
and you're not near
warning inside
burning pictures

try to try
the angles i can't separate cause i can't try this anymore
try to try
the lips you pass you kiss away

permanent sides
the false reflections
mask your tears
falling through time
this atmosphere

when you try, find a side to can't find a side to can't find the real truth

can't get inside you
when you decide theres nothing left to try
