

Selena, Acuerdate De Mi (English Translation)

"Remember Me"

Please remember! This translation is my personal work. It is sometimes difficult to translate word for word.

Oh, today I remembered you when I heard our song I returned for a moment to the happiest times that I spent with you mi amor Sometimes I wonder if you also remember those moments of our love How I wish I could know if you also think of me Thinking of you, I want you here
Remember me, mi amor
If I could, I would give you the world
In order to have you here
Remember, remember
Remember me
Remember, remember
Remember me
