

Selena, Costumbres (English Translation)

Please remember! This translation is my personal work. It is sometimes difficult to translate word for word.

Talk to me about you Tell me about your life
You know very well that I'm convinced I know that you can't even if you try to forget me You'll always come back time and again
Time and again you'll always come back Although you don't feel any more love for me
Only bitterness
I don't feel anything either and that's even worse
But I miss you, I also miss you There's no doubt that it's true that habit is stronger than love
