

Selena, Fotos Y Recuerdos (English Translation)

Please remember! This translation is my personal work. It is sometimes difficult to translate word for word.

Pictures and memories...

I have a picture of you that I kiss every night before going to bed
It kind of torn and it already starting to fade
For all the tears I crying over it
It all that I have left of your love
only pictures and memories
I have a memory of you that always makes me so happy of that party where I met you and that shy kiss that I gave you
It all that I have left of your love
only pictures and memories
