

Selena Gomez, Let Me Get Me like a prayer surrounding us moving effortlessly every word is relief I am in dance floor therapy all my babies and me but tonight it's for free no self-sabotage no letting my thoughts run me and this spiral are done burn this camouflage I've been wearing for mouths tryna let a little happy in for once

I need to let my mind rest while my body reflects

don't get me down
I won't let me get me
I am good right now
I won't let me get me
take that tired heart and go and turn it inside diving in ferociously, dancing intimately ui am so connected to me in the dark I am letting go so anonymously

I guess this is hat it feels like to be free

I need to let my mind rest

I won't let me get me
I am good right now
I won't let me get me
take that tired heart and go and turn it inside
don't get me down
I won't let me get me
I am good right now
I won't let me get me
take that tired heart and go and turn it inside
