

Selena, Las Cadenas (English Translation)

The Chains

Now that you're not here, I feel free
I go where I go, and nobody stops me
I'm in control of my life, and I feel happier
And I'll never, never go back to you
Now that you're not here, I feel happy
Everything's over, and it doesn't hurt anymore
From today on, there will only be happiness here in my soul
I don't want anything from you
Because I broke the chains of your love
And I'll never, ever go back
Because I broke the chains of your love
And I never want to see you again
Because I've forgotten those memories of your love and your kisses
And I'm hoping for someone new
I don't feel anything for you anymore
There won't be any more tears here
You'll see, I will be happy without you
