

Selena, Pa Qu! Me Sirve La Vida (English Translation)

"What Good Is Life For"

Please remember! This translation is my personal work. It is sometimes difficult to translate word for word.

What good is life for if I don't have you anymore
What good is life for if in the end I already lost you
I would rather die, and not be far from you
What good is life for, what do I want it for
if I'm without you
Today, that I already lost you
Today, that I live without you
I'm consumed by an abyss
And I don't want to live anymore
What good is life for, what do I want it for
if I'm without you
