

Selena, Tu Eres (English Translation)

Please remember! This translation is my personal work. It is sometimes difficult to translate word for word.

You are the brightest star in the sky, love
You are the air that I breath
and a sigh in my heart
And that is why you are my everything, mi amor*
You are my heart, and also the reason why I keep living
why I keep hoping that you give me your love
You are my heart
You are the dream that I have dreamed every night, corazon
You are the air that I breath
and a sigh in my heart
And that is why you are my everything, mi amor
You are my heart, and also the reason
why I keep living
why I keep hoping
that you give me your love
You are my heart
*-my love
