

Sense Field, I Refuse

Don't say that you know me
You never knew the first thing at all
Still you should have told me
Took everything and selling it off
These holes in your stories
As many as theres holes in the wall

You told me that you like the old me
Cause the new me is telling you:
I refuse to fit into this lame idea you've always had for me
I don't want to be what you want me to be

You complain because i'm not the same
I won't be missing the place that I came
I know that its risky but all bets are off
This is my life so whatever the cost
If i'm lost would you hold it against me?
Make me pay for every step of the way?

I know that you've already told me
You don't like the new me at all
You told me that you missed the old me
When I couldn't be happy

And I refuse to fit into this lame idea you've always had for me
I'm not gonna be what you want me to be
And I refuse, i'm not gonna be what you want to be

I know that you've already told me
You don't like the new me at all
You told me that you used to know me
You really never knew me at all
But all the change is a good thing
I'll see for myself
The change is a good thing
Spelling it out
Change is a good thing
Can see for myself
Change is a good thing

Don't say that you know me
You never knew the first thing at all
Still you should have told me
Took everything and selling it off

I refuse to fit into this lame idea
I refuse
I refuse to fit into this lame idea you've always had for me
I'm not gonna be what you want me to be
