

Sense Field, Nova

I've held this fire and I've walked through fire and it's burning outside ask for a feeling for a direction and it's burning inside
I know of a temple holding a spirit holding a spirit
I know of a story that ends with a question you're asking about me
ask for a feeling for a direction
AND IT'S BURNING INSIDE...
holding a spirit
you're asking about me
ask for an energy ask for an energy to give me a feeling asking about me....
