

Sentenced, Farewell

Ive dragged myself through the blood and mud and with burning eyes pushed the love away

No, Im not the kind of man whod play for keeps
-The enchantment lies in the moment of goodbyes

For eternity
-My sun has set down
I dream to flee
As I suffer "the black" bleed into me

I regret every single day I ever lived in my life
I gave all I had in me So its time to say Goodbye

The breath of wind beneath my beating wings is slowly dying down
-Yet raging its final blow!

As it crumbles down my castle in the air
The relieving words of farewell end my earthly Hell

For eternity
-My sun has set down
It has ceased to be
The lightning that once burned in me

I regret every single day I ever lived in my life
I gave all I had in me So its time to say Goodbye
