

Sentenced, My Sky Is Darker Than Thine

Frozen soil...A dim moonlight
I've been..on this glorious ride
Raise the arms in victory
I've seen...on this glorious night

I've kept my eyes open wide
Through my dream I was given a hint:
"My sky is darker than yours, my star is brighter than yours"
A glance to the moonlight shadow reveals the runes of yesterday:
"I am of Astral Strain, my sky is darker than thine"

Die...die...die!!!
I...I...I...despite Destroy!

The goals I've set to myself are far beyond mortality
To dominate, desolate everything weak that cannot stand alone!

And losers shall drop...
One after one...

I am before all gods
Who art thou to come to me?
You are the great pretender
And you will always be
(so die)

Frozen time...The astral gate
I've been before on this ground
Open wide before my eyes
I see...on this glorious ride

Now I know...
It was written in the stars that I am the Wrathchild
I laugh as you cry...
I am the one who laughs for last and laughs forever more

The goals I've set to myself are far beyond humanity
To dominate, desolate everything - I'm heading to immortality!

And losers shall drop...
One after one...
I WON!!!
