

Sentenced, When The Moment Of Death Arrives

Wasted years left behind as an old man nears to death Praying his lord to forgive him for the sins he never committed

The fear of dying
- the fear of the fires of hell
The fear of living
- the fear of endless tribulation
The scars of life
- the scars from a faceless world
The wings of Death
- unfold me and ease my pain

Death... comes as a relief...
...from the mortal suffering...
...young again...
...travelling into the ageless time

Memories of his past life vividly in his mind Feeling himself alive again when the Moment of Death arrives!

"flee in the darkness of death where exists no pain no fear;
a relief from the earthly... suffering...
...WHEN THE MOMENT OF DEATH ARRIVES..."
