

Septic Flesh, (Morpheus) The Dreamlord

(Music : Sotiris/Spiros/Chris, Lyrics : Sotiris)

I was sailing in the sea of lethargy upon an empty dream when land appeared and filled the endless horizon.

White pillars from marble deep into a garden
were shining like guiding stars.

The Dreamlord

A frozen voice from inside poured out in my dreamworld
the voice of Morpheus :
"Taste the fruit of knowledge drink the juice of wisdom and you'll see what eyes can't see"

The Dreamlord

"You have reached UTOPIA"

Solo : Chris

In the garden of illusions encircled from the pillars I found my idol
but clouds filled the purple sky and shed their crystal tears and the idol became muddy.

The Dreamlord

"The right explanation of symbols depends on you.

The sun will send me away"

Solo : Sotiris

In the place where the idol was,
appeared a white flower.
