

Serafin, Stephen's In The Sky

some god will finish there, main in torture, man in chair and stephen's in the sky a heathen broke my leg and turned me in my stony bed i need people, any people young man, heart attack and breathing through a metal stack down here in harmonies, a peace forever off your knees some gods would finish there, main in torture, man in chair
