

Serena Paris, Just About Enough

Just About Enough,
Just About Enough,
Just About Enough,
Just About Enough,

Just About Enough, can't take anymore of you.
Just About Enough, got me over the edge.
Just About Enough, you don't give me what I deserve.
I'm no fool, gotta get away from you.

After all you put me through,
Boy, I'm still in love with you.
Although, you don't seem to care,
You keep pushing my love down the stairs.
You got me crying,
So I'm leaving you behind.

Just About Enough, can't take anymore of you.
Just About Enough, got me over the edge.
Just About Enough, you don't give me what I deserve.
I'm no fool, gotta get away from you.

I have given all to you,
Gotta change my point of view.
Cause all I get in return,
Is a heart getting torn apart.

You got me crying,
So I'm leaving you behind.

Just About Enough, can't take anymore of you.
Just About Enough, got me over the edge.
Just About Enough, you don't give me what I deserve.
I'm no fool, gotta get away from you.

Just About Enough,
Just About Enough,
Just About Enough,
Just About Enough,

Just About Enough,
Just About Enough,
Just About Enough,
Just About Enough,

Just About Enough, can't take anymore of you.
Just About Enough, got me over the edge.
Just About Enough, you don't give me what I deserve.
I'm no fool, gotta get away from you.

Just About Enough,
Just About Enough,
Just About Enough,
Just About Enough,

Just About Enough,
Just About Enough,
Just About Enough,
Just About Enough.
