

Serenity, Derelict

Oh mother, sure it makes you cry to see your only son like this wherever yoy may be these days

It has been a year now that I can find no sleep
No matter what I try I fail
So I can see precisely how my blood fades away
A skeleton to anyone, a symbol of decay

(Chorus:)
I live in hell
Theres no other words for this place
I cannot tell what turned my life into this maze Im left alone
On this whole a derelicts is what I am A fallen soul
a wandering shadow of a man losing his mind

The ones who are against me, I fear them all around What have I done, what is their plan Is it just paranoia, I dont know whats going on A victim of conspiracy or haunted by a phantom?

Chorus
