

Serial Joe, Push

Standing in the corner of my mind
I try to run, but I'm so far behind.
I don't know the meaning of this life anyway
I try to find a way to get around this place.

I'm gonna face this, head on
I'm gonna push until these chains are gone.

Step into the doorway of this hole where I reside
I kick the wall down, step to the other side
I need the feeling of your calm embrace
I try to find the way around this.

I'm gonna face this, head on
I'm gonna push until these chains are gone.
I'm gonna face this, head on
I'm gonna push until these chains are gone.

- Bridge-

I'm gonna face this, head on
I'm gonna push until these chains are gone.
I'm gonna face this, head on
I'm gonna push until these chains are gone.
