

Serj Tankian, Bird Of Paradise

Just a kiss from your lips and I'm gone
Just a smile from your touch and I'm gone
Just a touch from your words makes me whole,
And the glance from your eyes says home.

I see what you're doing
You're piling it all up one by one
Pulling from the stars, drinking the teas,

I see what you're doing
You're piling it all up one by one Pulling the i's pulling the t's and crossing them all out.

Just a kiss from your lips,
Just a smile from your touch and I'm gone,
Just a touch from your words makes me whole,
And a glance from your eyes says home.

I see what you're doing
You're piling it all up one by one
Pulling from the stars, drinking from the seas,

I see what you're doing
You're piling it all up one by one Pulling the stars pulling the seas and crossing them all out.

Don't you want to be my love,
Can't we suddenly elope,

Try and cross the sea above,
Can't we suddenly all know,

Don't you want to be my love,
Can't we suddenly elope,

Try and cross the sea above,
Can't we suddenly all know,

Just a, just a kiss from your lips and I'm ...
