Serra Eric, My Lady Blue

No regrets, no tears. Only a strange feeling, sleeping without falling. I'll try another World where the water is not blue anymore, another reallity. Oh, my baby I love you, My lady blue. I'm looking for something that I'll never reach. I seek eternity. No more sun, no more wind. Only a strange feeling, leaving without moving. I'll try another World and the sky slowly fades in my mind. Just like a memory. No more reasons, no fears Only this strange feeling, giving without thinking. Oh, my baby I love you, My lady blue. I'm looking for something I'll never reach. Baby, I love you my lady blue. I'm searching for something that I'll never reach. I seek eternity.
