Sesame Street, Different Ways

Queen: I love her 'cause she's tiny and small I love you 'cause you came first of all Tiny and small love Came first of all love Mommy will love through all her days You and your sister, different ways

I love her 'cause she has to be fed I love you 'cause you make your own bed She has to be fed love Make your own bed love Mommy will love through all her days You and your sister, different ways

I love her 'cause she's small and helpless She has to be washed and dressed each day I love you 'cause you're big and helpful And you can read, sing and play

I love her 'cause she's sugar and spice I love you 'cause you're awfully nice Sugar and spice love Awfully nice love

Prince Firstly: Tiny and small love Came first of all love

Queen: Mommy will love through all her days You and your sister, different ways Mommy will love through all her days You and your sister, different ways

Prince Firstly (same time as she sings last line): Me and my sister, different ways
