

Seven Steps Of Denial, Gemini

Your inner child, the second soul
Not conscious enough
To know what is lost
Grief and loss turned into senses
A sense of emptiness
Our lives' to be tossed

[Chorus]
My Gemini, born
A memory of being whole
My link with the divine
Will be broken in this world of mine

This frantic search for integrity
The choice of becoming one within myself
Superficial wholeness through others
A quest that leads me to my shadow self

[Chorus]
Like a fire my soul is burning up
The image reflecting in my eyes
Outside my flesh still aches to feel
The return to my former hell
