

Seven Wiser, Regret

Did you hear me calling
The day you walked out
Didn't even turn around
To see me trying
In this life I'm nothing but alone
Trying to understand
This in front of me
You never gave a damn about me

Now, how, how could you just
Turn your back on me
Now, after everything I've done for you
I never walked away from anything but you
Taking everything from me and turned it
Upside down

So I see you out there
Your face is crying
Regret is in your mind
I'm sick of trying
In this life I'm nothing but alone
Why everything for me is upside down
You never gave a damn about me

Now, how, how could you just
Turn your back on me
Now, after everything I've done for you
I never walked away from anything but you
Taking everything from me and turned it
Upside down

Every time you sit and think of me
In your head, you're crawling back to me
Every time you sit and think of me
In your head, you're crawling back to me

Now, how, how could you just
Turn your back on me
Now, after everything I've done for you
I never walked away from anything but you
Taking everything from me and turned it
Upside down
