

Sevendust, Superficial Drug

I haven't felt like myself for Awhile
It's so hard... to move on
Why I do feel like I'm never around
To see you explode
I used to be so much better
When I didn't give a damn at all - oh no
Where ya been, what cha say
Where the hell did all the love
Really go

Tragedy – in my blood
I don't fight it anymore
Bury me with all the love
Every other thing is meaningless
Real words hurt the most
Take your superficial drug

I always fall for the colorful lies
They're so hard not to love
I'd like to think that I'm changing

But you'll never know
Let it out, what ya got
I don't ever listen and I can't
Relate to you
You hate, what I do and say, why
The hell do I care anymore

Tragedy – in my blood
I don't fight it anymore
Bury me with all the love
Every other thing is meaningless
Real words hurt the most
Take your superficial drug

Tragedy – in my blood
I can't fight it anymore
Bury me with all the love
Every other thing is meaningless
Real words hurt the most
Take your superficial drug

Tragedy – in my blood
I don't fight it anymore
Bury me with all the love
Every other thing is meaningless
