

Sevenglory, Fall Apart

What is that you say to me?

You say that you have all the answers and you see what my life ought to be

I can see the need that I bear

What keeps me from your touch?

I know that if I let go

I know that I

I know that I..

I fall apart without you in my life, so I am running to you

Everything that I have known has failed me time and time again

I pray that you would not see me not see me cause without you, I..

I fall apart without you in my life, so I am running to you
