

Sever Wisser, Sick

What are these feelings through me?
How'd you get these thoughts inside my mind
Everything that lies around me
Is a joke for me to criticize
You've taken everything from me
Taking everything that I need
And now that everything's gone
There's nothing left for me
Can't you see the ones in need
This isn't over
I'm sick of all this pain
So I drink it all away, yeah
Alone here on this earth
Till my eyes close and die
I never thought I'd ever see
A day like this would ever come
And now we all need to stand
Stand in all as one
Take a look around you
Thanks to all you have Cause it could all be gone
Just like that!
[Talking]
How the fuck could you just go and take someone's life from under them
And I hope you die
Hope you rot in hell
If not I'll show you pain
I'm sick of all this pain
So I drink it all away, yeah
Alone here on this earth
Till my eyes close and die
Held up,
Can you just take someone's life away.
Held up,
Can you just take someone's life away.
I'm sick of all this pain
So I drink it all away, yeah
Alone here on this earth
Till my eyes close and die
How the fuck can you just take
This isn't over
How the fuck can you just take
This isn't over
How the fuck can you just take
This isn't over
How the fuck can you just take someone's life away
This isn't over
