

Sewing With Nancie, Shut Up

Call me on the phone, i wish i wasn't home.
Hey, what's up?
Wonder what is new? All we ever talk about is you, what's up?
For me, shut up.

555-1212
That is what i think of you.
It's just a boring convo through and through.
Let you go, do it over and over again.

Telephony rings, my ears begin to sting.
Hey, what's up?
Asking about me, would use up too much time and energy, what's up?
For me, shut up.

555-1212
That is what i think of you.
It's just a boring convo through and through.
Take a hint, take a hint, take a hint, take a hint.....
Shut up.
