

Sex Appeal, Fragile Love

My heart remembers that rainy day
Feelin' so bad and so lonely
I was cryin' but you couldn't stay
You were my one and my only

Tell me why tell me why my baby
So why is it love turns from good to bad
Tell me why tell me why my baby
Our dream had to die here so sad
Fragile love - like a toy of glass
A tiny touch may break it
Fragile love - we can make it last

We'll find a dream and make it

The night began and we took our chance
To feel the heat of the fire
And my heart was just waiting to dance
Dancing with our desire
