

Sex Appeal, It's Called Atlantis

Sometimes I just dont know
Where to go with my fears
Sometimes Im feeling alone
Theres no one beside me drying my tears
I wish I could fly to a secret planet
A spot to run and hide
Where is this place where can i find some shelter
The peace of my heart

Theres a secret land
Down deep in the ocean
God only knows where it may be
Theres a hidden place
A burning devotion
Its not a tale
Not a fantasy

Its called Atlantis
A world of emotions
A world of peace
Its called Atlantis
More than it shows its a mystery
Its called Atlantis

Maybe its not so far
Maybe its just inside of my heart
Hiding away in my dreams
Always beside me right from the start
I wish i could dive in this deep blue see
To find what im looking for
Is it still there on the bottom of emotion
Far away from the shore
