

Sexy Sadie, Johnny 'The Good'

There goes Johnny the good heading to nowhere
He was put in between two ways and sat to wait
Johnny said "it's all right", said "someday"
He likes staring at the sun
I said "Johnny, sun won't come down to your hands"
He just wrote his sad smile down in his face
Johnny said "it's all right", said "someday"
Kept on staring at the sun
There goes Johnny the good heading to nowhere
He was put in between two ways and sat to wait
Johnny said "it's all right", said "someday"
He likes staring at the sun
