

Shades Apart, Know-It-All

It's funny how your head never leaves the clouds
When you're walking down the street
Stepping through the air so nonchalant
You try so hard to flaunt, the sight is such a comedy

I know it doesn't seem like such a lonely town
But you're coming close to the edge
Anyway, you think you'll never fall
Your problems are so small, you try impressing all those friends

It's written on your face
Anyone can see, you are better than everybody
It's written on your face
Anyone can see, you really think you know it all

You know it all

Funny how the words stumble from your mouth
Your head's not even in the room
Lecturing to fill up every lull, to listen is too dull
Such an empty skull, it's true

I know it must get very lonely at the top
Living high up on that hill
Anyway, I'm knocking at your door
You can't hide anymore, from pretending to ignore me still

It's written on your face
Anyone can see, you are better than everybody
It's written on your face
Anyone can see, you really think you know it all

You know it all
You think you know it all
You know it all
You think you

Whoa a oh oh oh oh(x4)

It's written on your face
Anyone can see, you are better than everybody
It's written on your face
Anyone can see, you really think you know it all

You, you you
Think you, you you
You think you know it all
You think you know it all
You're such a know-it-all
You think you know it all
You think you, you think you
(Whoa a oh oh oh oh)
You think you, you think you
(Whoa a oh oh oh oh)
You think you know it all
(Whoa a oh oh oh oh)
(Whoa a oh oh oh oh)
Yeah
