

Shakin Stevens, Breaking Up My Heart

Ev'rything you say ev'rything you do
Always seems to put me down - put me down.
Is there something wrong
do I still belong?
Is it just a run-around? Run-around?
Don't say he's not the reason why
'Cos when I lie awake
it's his name I hear you cry.
Thought he'd left your mind
And that only time stood between your fantasy - fantasy.
Guess I always knew he'd be haunting you Stealing what you had from me - had for me.
I can't stand here and let it die.
Ev'ry step you take
I'll be there right by your side.
'Cos it's breaking up my heart
feel like dying
Breaking up my heart
feel like crying.
Tell him where to go
show the man the door
'Cos ev'rything you do is breaking up my heart.
I won't let you go
baby
never know
Can't you get it through your head? Through your head?
I won't set you free
you belong to me
What he had for you is dead - love is dead.
Love burns fire that never cools
Don't you know that love hurts people who break the rules?
'Cos it's breaking up my heart
feel like dying
I can't stand here and let it die.
Ev'ry step you take
I'll be there right by your side.
I won't let you go
oh
you never know
Breaking up my heart
feel like dying
Breaking up my heart
feel like crying.
Tell him where to go
show the man the door
'Cos ev'rything you do is breaking breaking
Breaking up my heart
breaking up my heart
Tell him where to go
show the man the door
'Cos ev'rything you do is breaking
breaking
Breaking up my heart
feel like dying
Breaking up my heart
feel like crying.
