

Shakin Stevens, Give Me Your Heart Tonight

Oh tonight - I'm walking the streets again
Runnin' away from all of my teasin' friends.
Oh tonight - the stars are in darkened skies
They don't hold all the love
I can see in your lonely eyes.
Cause I'm not waiting for a secret
I don't want to hear a lie.
Don't want the promise of tomorrow
Give me your heart tonight.
Too young - too young to start settling down
I'm getting too old
too old to keep running around
Oh
your love is something I don't wanna miss.
End up alone and livin' on a one night kiss.□
Cause I'm not crying without reason
I'm not asking what is right.
Tust like the changin' of the season
Give me your heart tonight.
Cause I'm not waiting for a secret
