

Shakira feat. Alejandro Sanz, Pienso En Ti (I Think Of You)

Everyday, I think of you.
I think a bit more of you
I take apart my heart...
Something in me is destroyed...
Everyday I think of you.
I think a bit more of you...
Everytime that the sun comes out
I look for a bit of valor to continue.

And I see you, I didn't touch you that way.
I pray for you every night...
It dawns and I think of you.
And it rumbles in my ears
the tick-tock of the clocks and I keep thinking of you and I keep thinking.....
