

Shanice Wilson, Don't Break My Heart

Written by: Daryl Simmons

Baby I know you're ready for love
Ya gotta be patient with me, for me
Cause you're my first
I want it to be just like I dreamed

So you know why I've
Been taking my time
To think about the rest of my life
And yes I want to spend it with you
Hope that you're feeling baby
The same way too

(chorus)
So don't break my heart
If you do I'll cry forever
Cause there's no way I could
Ever get over you
Not in my life time

Baby there's no
No greater feeling
Greater than being with you
Me and you
Baby I thirst
For ever single drop of your love
Your love

Now I hope that I'm not wasting my time
I got better things to do with my life
So I hope you plan to grow old with me
Cause that's the only way
The only way
We could be

(chorus)

Promise me you'll watch over me
Just promise me right here and right now
Oh yeah
You know my little heart breaks so easily
So baby don't let me
Don't let me
Don't let me down
