

Shary-An, Read My Book

Words choke up inside your throat
You won't hold back no you can't say no
Can't help yourself it's your second nature
Your opinion must be heard you don't care
If you know it hurts noise falls
Out of your mouth it starts with I hate her
My big sis told me if you've got nothing nice to say
Don't say it all don't save it for rainy day
Saves the drama saves the hype and the mess
I know I am not perfect but I ask you this yeah

So read my book before you hate the cover hate the cover
So read my book before you hate the cover hate the cover

You may laugh but there is the joke
Knock, knock who is there no one is home
Say more about you then it does me
You have got your crew that just follow you
Breathing energy that is harsh and rude
Try and be nice it might suit you
My big sis told me if you've got nothing nice to say:
Don't say it all don't save it for rainy day
Saves the drama saves the hype and the mess
I know I am not perfect but I ask you this, yeah!

So read my book before you hate the cover hate the cover
So read my book before you hate the cover hate the cover
So please won't you just leave your thoughts on the shelf
Cause I am still trying to understand myself
So read my book before you hate the cover hate the cover
Hate the cover

Being nice is easy drop the bitch exterior
The dirty looks so why shuhs
Cause everybody knows who you are
Why waste all your energy on being everybody's enemy
If you want to read my book just holla at me
Your opinion must be heard you don't care
If you know it hurts noise falls
Out of your mouth it starts with I hate her

So read my book before you hate the cover hate the cover
So read my book before you hate the cover hate the cover

So read my book before you hate the cover hate the cover
So read my book before you hate the cover hate the cover
So please won't you just leave your thoughts on the shelf
Cause I am still trying to understand myself
So read my book before you hate the cover hate the cover
So read my book before you hate the cover hate the cover

Your opinion must be heard you don't care
If you know it hurts noise falls
Out of your mouth it starts with I hate her
