

Shawn McDonald, Somewhere Over The Rainbow

Somewhere over the rainbow
Way up high
I heard once, oh I heard it once in a lulla, a lullaby
And somewhere over the rainbow
Skies are blue
And those of you who dare to dream, your dreams really can come true

Someday I'll wish upon a star
I'd wake up where the clouds are far behind me, are far behind me
Where troubles melt like lemondrops
Way up above the chimney tops
Is where you'll find me, it's where you'll find me
Someday I'll wish upon a star
And wake up where the clouds are far behind me, far behind me
Where troubles melt like lemondrops
Way up above the chimney tops
Is where you'll find me, it's where you'll find me

And somewhere over the rainbow
Little bluebirds fly
Little blue birds fly over the rainbow
So why, oh why can't I?
And somewhere over the rainbow
Little bluebirds, they fly
Little blue birds fly over the rainbow
So why, oh why can't I?

If happy little bluebirds fly
Way up above the big blue sky
Why can't I?
