

Sheb Wooley, I Can't Believe You're Mine

I can't believe you're mine.
Really really mine.
I wanted you to be mine own
For such a long long time

I can't believe at last.
My lonely nights are past
And now I have your love so fine.
I can't believe you're mine.

I can't believe your eyes so loving and tender
are open wide open for me.
I can't believe your lips so sweet have surrendered
and you're mine alone forever more to be.

Such joy and peace and mind
I never thought I'd find
I'm just so much in love with you.
I can't believe you're mine

I can't believe your arms so loving and tender
are open wide open for me.
I can't believe your lips so sweet have surrendered
and you're mine alone forever more to be.

Such joy and peace and mind
I never thought I'd find
I'm just so much in love with you.
I can't believe you're mine.

I'm just so much in love with you
I can't believe you're mine.
