

SHeDAISY, Now

(Kristyn Osborn, Trey Bruce)

If I could be thirteen again
To live with no regrets
When I could still be president
And I could feel my dad
(I miss my) dad as he's holding me
In his arms not in my dreams
I could not wait to be Something like twenty-three
But

Chorus:

Now I've got the sun
To clear away the clouds
So why look back when there's a
Stunning blazing so amazing
Now now

From here love looks so effortless
The simple used to do
Grass never feels as green I guess
Underneath our shoes
(Let's) you and me and cnn
Flip the switch go back again
I wonder who we'd see
Reflecting from our TV

Repeat chorus:

Now we've got the sun

Bridge:

Oh the reconstructing you can do
With scissors and a little glue
And leave what's left to decorate the ground
Rediscovering your bliss is the sweetest part of
This---this is all we need right now

Repeat chorus X3

Now we've got the sun
