

Sheer Terror, Just Can't Hate Enough

shut up punk

We don't give a shit, we've had it up to here.
It's about time I made my intentions clear.
I don't give a fuck about your skinhead pride.
I could care less about the lower east side.
I'm just a working class lub who's tired.
While getting the short end of the stick.
It ain't my problem if I'm not like you and I'm sucking Uncle Sam's dick.

You call me negative, think I'm out of touch, I cant stand living, I can't stand you and I just can't hat

You think my hatred is blinding me but I can see as far as I can spit.
??? can see quite clear and I can see that you're full of shit

You call me negative, think I'm out of touch, I cant stand living, I can't stand you and I just can't hat
