

Sheila Nicholls, Ruby

Ruby's smiling not because she's happy, but cause she's planning her escape, Ruby's smiling to make sure you feel comfortable inside you smiling world, behind your smiling tape

Ruby take us to the Promised Land, Ruby you are Moses with a different band Speak the truth girl so all the slaves will understand We'll find our real smiles hidden in the desert

No one suspects her no one can see a difference because she smiles the way you taught her, candy coated And she can play you better than you ever could play her but it's boring, she's kind of bloated;
And sometimes she finds she will play herself, now that is dangerous, that is lying So she is leaving
She is taking everything, she's not coming back, no she's not coming back

We've seen this smile before, on Lillith's face as she slammed the door Left Adam standing in the Garden of Eden
He had a hard-on and was ready for breeding,
She didn't want to but he couldn't hear
She said 'cook your own meals and have a wank my dear!'
