

Shelby Sifers, Shower

You sing in the shower at ungodly hours of the morning I would make crepes every Saturday and we would spread them spread them with jam and we would eat them eat them with our bare hands Oh when summer comes, we'll turn the sprinklers on We got them installed, though we don't have a lawn, but we like to slip and slip and slide We like to sun our backsides
We like to kiss and make up
We like to live cause livin' is tough
