

Shelter, Man Or Beast

Power, takes it right from you
Coward, steps on those he screws
Recreation, women used, tossed
Adoration, from others beasts equally as lost
Dressed to impress you but I really know what's underneath
And I know peace can never be as long as he still walks the streets
Endorsed by our culture, so I'm sitting here with disbelief
He rules this land, makes his demands but is he man or beast ?
Dedication, anger, conceit, pride
Sophistication, we know that's a lie
Consumes, he just eats, whatever
Costumes, you think you fooled us ?
Never
Give the best position, people listen without thinking it through
We honor by externals, the most foolish thing to do
Charisma without substance, that's what we pursue
Raise your hand people, take a stand people
Is he man people, man or beast ?
