

Sherwood, Those Bright Lights

I've laid for seven years here, here inside my mind,
Here inside my,
Alone in my inaction, doubt has left me blind,
Doubt has left me blind,

But I want to say,
I'm getting out this time,
Turning around those bright lights,
Show me the world outside,

I've laid for twenty years here,
Here inside my mind,
Here inside my mind,
And doubt has left me blind,

But I want to say,
I'm getting out this time,
Turning around those bright lights,
Show me the world outside,

Seven years inside this fear, it's the long way,
It's not for me,
A simple road with little owed, it's the cheap way,
But not quite free,
And you will find this life unkind when you focus on your own needs,
You will see,

But I want to say (I want to say)
I'm getting out this time,
Turning around those bright lights,
Show me the world outside,
