

Shifty, All Along

CHORUS:

I cant believe im fallin' so hard for you we've known eachother so long all along i've been out lookin' for somethin' when somethin' was you all along

I used to look to you as a friend the one I'd call when i felt like my life was 'bout to end when the sky is fallin' down and the walls are closing in inside i need a friend so i'm callin' you again oh can ya lift me up because i feel so down im lost in my head i feel used but refuse to believe that love is dead cause you gave me all the signs but i was blind my third eye sees you now i keep lookin' up and leavin' believin' this one's right but that one just aint my type or hieght see im not tryin' to waste my life or sit back and watch as it races by cause what im lookin' for is a love that's true i never thought it was you and i dont know why i always thought it was her that I'd find her for sure but I'm a little too old to be actin' immature

CHORUS

your the one that loves me and your the one that cares and girl your the one that will always be there se i've looked high and i've looked low for the girl that i had right under my nose and goes to show you really never know so i turned around and found my way back to your front door and i dont think we can be just friends anymore im here to let you know i let the other girls go i hope you feel like i feel cause i swear that somethin's real and its tearin' me apart now im an owner of a lonley heart so if i wish apon a star we could live a fairy tale im not afraid to try and im not afraid to fail i made up my mind this time you took the scale now let my lips touch your lips keep it down girl cause i wouldnt want you to miss this for the world

(music...)

girl you can keep me in a stay girl you just take my breath away your more than just a friend to me so you can have your way (your way your way) lets say that we were meant to be if we dont try we'll never see believe and take a chance with me
